

Holistic Counseling

Table of Contents

- 1) Principles & Purpose of Holistic Counseling
 - i) The 7 Philosophies of Naturopathic Medicine
 - ii) Treat The Whole Person
 - iii) The process of holistic counseling implements all the 7 Philosophies of Naturopathic Medicine.
 - iv) First of all, do no harm.
 - v) Doctor as Teacher.
 - vi) Work in Harmony with the Healing Power of Nature.
 - vii) Treat each person as an Individual.
 - viii) Treat the whole person.
 - ix) Treat the underlying cause of illness.
 - x) Physician, Heal thyself!
 - xi) The 3 Forms of Naturopathic Medicine Treatment - Allopathic – Systemic – Holistic
- 2) Discovering the Underlying Core Belief System
- 3) The Holistic Dialogue
 - i) Attitude and Presence of the Practitioner
 - ii) The Practitioner is in Charge

- iii) The Big Question – What if someone is not ready?
- iv) Be Calm and Trust the Process:
- v) Be Seamless
- vi) Things seeming to get worse when they are really getting better
- vii) Feedback – Different ways of feeding back
- viii) Incorrect / Inaccurate mirroring

4) The Holistic Dialogue Questions

- i) Non-directive vs directive questions.
- ii) Directive Questions
- iii) Things to do when the Case is Not Advancing / Stuck
- iv) Take a Guess Technique
- v) Recognizing and dealing with compensated behaviour
- vi) Reading Signs from the Patient Technique of - Going Deeper and Deeper through the Physical
- vii) The Limitations of Holistic Counseling

5) What To Do with the Underlying Cause

- i) Name It and Cross-It-Off Technique
- ii) The Hold it For Longer Technique
- iii) Patient-specific Affirmations Moshe's Technique – The Present – Past – Future Exercise